F.A.Q.

How much is each FEHA buck worth? A FEHA buck is equivalent to $1 USD. You may exchange you FEHA bucks for anything FEHA has to offer, including AEM admission, FEHA Membership, District meetings, FEHA merchandise and even HOTEL ROOM nights at the AEM!

Can I trade my FEHA bucks for cash? No. However FEHA bucks are the next best thing to cash. FEHA bucks are valid for FEHA events, merchandise and other FEHA related items. You cannot trade them for cash. However, can you really put a price on the educational opportunities that FEHA has to offer?

How do I sell an exhibit booth or sponsorship? You don't have to actually "sell" the exhibit booth, sponsorship or journal advertising yourself if you do not feel comfortable doing so. You can email all the information for the company that you believe would benefit from advertising, sponsoring or exhibiting with FEHA and we will take care of the rest. If that company ends up purchasing advertising, sponsorships or exhibit space you will be notified and issued the FEHA bucks. Please remember to send us the companies name, website and contact information for the person at the company responsible for their marketing. This information can be emailed to Info@FEHA.org

How do I bring in new members? FEHA has several types of memberships. If a new member is signing up on our website, when they are filling out the member application, there is a section that says "How did you hear about FEHA?" Just tell your friend to write your name in that box and we will apply the FEHA bucks credit to your account. If you have a new member that wishes to sign up for the free 1 year membership, the new members name, phone number and email address must be emailed to info@FEHA.org in order to be manually added to the system and issued the free 1 year membership. Remember for each free member you bring on board you will earn a FEHA buck. So be sure to get as many of your co-workers to sign up as you can. You can also download the new member form, request a new member form be emailed to you or hard copies of the flyer can be mailed to you. These forms can then be scanned and sent to info@FEHA.org

Is there a limit to the amount of FEHA bucks I can earn? The possibilities are endless when it comes to FEHA bucks! You can earn as many as you want, and they DO NOT expire!

Who do I contact if I have more questions about the FEHA Bucks program or to find out how many FEHA bucks I have in my account? You can email info@FEHA.org with any questions about the FEHA bucks program or to find out the balance of your FEHA bucks account.
